From the very beginning GIOM focused on imparting management education, highly relevant for Indian Industries to meet their demand of trained manpower with practical experience & sound theoretical knowledge. One of the important vision of the institute is to develop very strong relationship with industries and understand their needs, which make the students acquainted with hands on training & prepare them for industry culture and environment from the very first day of their employment. GIOM aims to become a world class knowledge enterprise in future. This necessarily demands for world class infrastructure, most modern class rooms, up-to-date laboratories, an excellent library and information system, qualified and motivating faculty, intellectual capital, intimate interaction with the industries and professional societies, many more steps have been already taken, and have equipped the institute with state-of-the-art facilities and infrastructure coupled with qualified and experienced staff. The trust aims at promoting global thinking, the value of professionalism, social sensitivity and dynamic entrepreneurship.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Economic Development implies both more output & changes in the technical, institutional arrangements by which it is produced and a change in attitudes and values. Development concerns not only man's material needs but also improvement of the social conditions of his Life. Development is therefore not only economic growth but growth plus change-social, cultural & institutional. Economic Development is a value based concept. It should include not only the acceleration of economic growth but also the reduction of inequality & eradication of poverty, increase in employment opportunities & welfare of the masses etc. Economic Development encompasses human development.

The economic development of India was dominated by "License Raj." It led the country's economy isolated from world economy. The Scenario started changing from mid- 1980s by opening its market through economic liberalization. The economic development got a boost through its economic reform in 1991 & through its renewal in the year 2000. India has progressed towards a free market economy. Due to the economic reforms the Government has taken, the face of economic development of India has completely changed. In late 2000 India's growth reached 7.5%.

India is world's 7th largest economy & has emerged as the fastest growing major economy in the world. According to the economic survey 2015-16, Indian Economy will continue to grow more than 7% in 2016-17. The improvement in India's Economy has accelerated with the combined impact of strong Government reforms.

Considering the above facts & the recent initiatives taken by the Government, it is highly necessary to have in-depth discussions on the said theme & sub theme of the conference.

THE OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE

- 1) To understand the Government initiatives for Economic Development of India.
- 2) To know the effect of Government initiatives for Economic Development of India.
- 3) To provide a common platform for sharing ideas, knowledge & experience regarding the Government initiatives for Economic Development of India to Academicians, Research scholars and students.
- 4) To explore possible additional dimensions of Government initiatives for Economic Development of India through the process of brainstorming & thought sharing.

The conference provides an opportunity for the publication of Research Papers submitted by Specialists, analyses and debates regarding all issues related with Government initiatives for Economic Developments of India throughout all fields, of Management. It will also help the Entrepreneurs, Management, Practitioners and Administrators to design proper strategies in order to achieve the overall Economic Development.

Dear Sir / Mam,

Arthkranti is very thankful to you for inviting us for presenting our thoughts on current economic issues and the Arthkranti Proposal.

Sir, as Mr. Anil Bokil is currently pre-occupied with various media and other scheduled programmes, it is really not possible for him to be present at your event.

However, there are various eminent speakers from the Arthkranti team who would be available to speak on the subject.

Let us know if such an arrangement is acceptable for you, and we can proceed to finalizing the schedule.

Awaiting your reply.
